Jacob Lee Lincoln

August 15, 1985 - September 25, 2021

Jacob Lee Lincoln, 36, a guy with a magnetic personality that always drew people to him, died September 25, 2021 in San Antonio, TX. Jacob was born in San Antonio on August 15, 1985 to James and Jodi (Hicks) Lincoln. They later moved to Charlotte, MI where Jacob grew up and graduated from High School. Friends and family remember Jacob as a fun-loving goofball, a character that loved friendly conversation and playing pranks on his friends and family. A very family-oriented guy, Jacob was very close with his older brother, Nicolas, and did lots of activities with his extended family like fishing, bike riding, and being quite a daredevil in many activities. There are stories of mountain biking near Eaton Rapids through a rough terrain, riding skateboards, and all sorts of outdoor activities because Jacob wasn't afraid to try anything. Guns intrigued him, so he starting collecting them.

Since Jacob wasn't afraid to try anything, he learned how to be an exceptional HVAC technician. The business he worked for, Will Fix It HVAC, said he was beyond exceptional as a technician, and an extraordinary salesman. He was a customer favorite.

His family is very proud that Jacob gave his heart to God, and now he rests in his Heavenly Father's arms. Jacob is survived by his parents, Jodi Lincoln of Charlotte, MI and James Lincoln of San Antonio, TX; fiancée, Dorothy Garza; brother, Nicolas (Sara) Lincoln; niece, Emma Grace; grandparents, Peggy

Lincoln and Hulen (Mary) Lincoln; aunt, Sherry Lincoln; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins. He was preceded in death by grandfather, Jim Hicks; grandmother, Jackie Hicks; and great-grandmother, Edna Roberts.

Too many memories to share just one. Jacob has always been a part of our family. I can't ever remember a time when he wasn't smiling, joking or loving on others. He will forever be in my heart and I cherish the day I will see him again in Heaven. The song by Casting Crowns "Scars" is my healing song for this time. Love you all and praying for God's comfort and strength.

I honestly don't even know where to begin. From pulling us behind his scooter as kids to teaching me valuable lessons as an adult. He was everything a kid could ask for from a cousin growing up. I always couldn't wait to go hangout with Jake because it was always a fun time. Which actually sums him up pretty well, no matter what you were doing from fishing, cards, hill Billy golf, movies, or just hanging out having conversation, it was always fun. He never had many bad days and if he did he was an expert on keeping it to himself. Jake and I got really close when he got me a job working as a painter at canyon oaks. I would follow him around everyday and learn as much as I could. If you knew Jake, you know he could fix anything. He took the time to put me under his wing and teach me as much as he could the 5 years we worked together. I learned so much in that time and couldn't thank him enough for answering all my questions no matter how dumb I thought they were. Jake may be gone but he will love in my heart forever.

Jacob was my cousin/bro. I lived with him and we created so many memories I will cherish. Growing up with Jake was beyond fun! He always knew how to make people laugh even if your having a bad Jake didnt accept that. All the games we played and him and jeremy would cheat together lol. All the tickle tortures and wet willies. I remember sleeping on your trampoline over night as kids. So many memories. I love you cuz!

You will forever be missed my friend for I will never forget you. You are by far the only person in this world that I could actually call a friend with no strings attached. The only true friend I ever had. I love you Jake forever friend.

Hearing of Jake's passing was definitely a shock to our family. Bobby and Jake have known each other since Michigan, and when Jake moved back to San Antonio he became close with our family. The kids loved to hang out with Jake because he always liked to be fun and adventurous. He has left lasting memories for my kids and I will forever be grateful for that.
To Jim, & Jodi, and the rest of the family...my sincere condolences. "There are some who bring a light so great to the world that even after they have gone the light remains."
