

Diana Kay Tharp

October 24, 1961 - July 4, 2018

Diana Kay Tharp, a dedicated teacher, died peacefully on Wednesday, July 4, 2018, in Charlotte. Diana, 56, of Charlotte, was born October 24, 1961, in Charlotte, the daughter of Carroll E. and Jane Anne (Smith) Tharp. She lived an active childhood, always involved in the outdoors and school activities. Following graduation from Charlotte High School in 1979, she earned her bachelors of education from University of South Carolina and spent over 10 years teaching in Whitmore, SC, and Fayetteville, NC. She later taught science at Pansophia Charter School in Coldwater, MI.

Diana devoted her life to her students, always inspiring the wonder of science in them. She often led expeditions along the beaches of South Carolina to rescue migrating turtles. In Michigan, she ensured that foreign exchange students found the best experience in their studies, hosting trips up North to Mackinac Island and beyond. She enjoyed volunteering as a docent at the Binder Park Zoo. Diana volunteered much of her time to her community and her church. As a member of the Gresham United Methodist Church, she helped organize various activities. She served as her mother, Jane's "right hand" at the Charlotte Community Nursery Preschool. Diana also loved special trips with her Aunts, and time spent with her nieces and nephews.

Diana is survived by her mother, Jane Ann Tharp; siblings, David (Betsy) Tharp, Sharon Gault, and Mark Tharp; aunts, Helen (Jack) Snedeker, Sue (Dick) Trimble, Rachel (Doc) Wiley, and Kate Tharp; special nephew, Ian "Bug" Gault; and her nieces, nephews and cousins. She is predeceased by her father; aunt Sally Vanderploeg; and her brother-in-law, Danny Gault.

A celebration of life will be held Sunday, July 29, 2018, from 2-5:00 p.m. at Camp Frances in Charlotte, MI. If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to the American Cancer Society or Gresham United Methodist Church. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Diana on her Tribute Page at www.PrayFuneral.com. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

“ Deepest sympathy to all who are mourning the loss of Diana, especially to our dear "Miss Janie." Our thoughts and prayers are with you. We'd like to share part of a poem written by John Greenleaf Whittier that has been comforting to our family in times of loss.

Who hath not learned, in hours of faith,
The truth to flesh and sense unknown;
That life is ever lord of death,
and love can never lose its own.

“ Diana was a substitute teacher of mine as a child. We reconnected years later when she began receiving medication from the pharmacy where I work. I always enjoyed her coming in because we managed to find a second to catch up and lift up one another.

“ So sorry for your loss. I didn't know she had been ill. Diana and I were flag girls together in the CHS marching band.

Laurie Newland - July 08, 2018 at 08:12 PM

“ Rest in peace Miss Tharp. You were such an amazing teacher and I'll always make sure to use pencil in my notebooks because it isn't water soluble.

“ I'm bawling my eyes out. Mrs. Tharp was my favorite science teacher and one of my all time favorite teachers in general!!! She was so kind and funny. I've thought of her often since high school at Pansophia. She was such an inspiring person and had such a heart of gold. I'm so sorry for her families loss.

“ My husband and I met Diana when she was a student at USC Upstate. We always called her our “unofficial” adopted daughter. I was always impressed with her upbeat and giving spirit. I will always remember her visit to SC last year, and how we enjoyed a 3 hour lunch. We shall miss her vey much and wish we had more people liked her in this world.

You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ We are very saddened to hear about the passing of Diana. Your loss has left all of us deeply saddened. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. May peace and comfort find you during this difficult time. Roxanne & Randall Wooley

Roxanne Wooley - July 05, 2018 at 10:39 AM

“ Diana and I have so many wonderful memories together, we loved going to the movies and going out to eat to our favorite Chinese food place. I will miss her laugh, she had a laugh that would make everyone else around her laugh too. She is truly one of the the greatest people I have ever had the pleasure of calling my friend. I'll miss her beyond measure. RIP my sweet friend.
