Karie enjoyed watching The University of Michigan Football, NASCAR, her morning coffee, fishing up north on Hunter Lake with her father, and her GMC Sierra that she named Trouble. Her biggest passion in her life was her children and her love for animals.

“ When she was little, Karie and her family lived next door to my parents, the Vitale's. I always marveled that a little girl who was so beautiful on the outside was also so beautiful on the inside. She was always so sweet and kind and she remained so her whole life. This world will be a sadder place without her. My condolences to her family. It is so hard to lose this precious jewel but Heaven has gained a beautiful angel.

“ Karie you were a real rock for our family in mom's last days. We could always count on you to keep our spirits up and a smile on our faces. Mom really liked you and was very grateful for all you did. Your fire and energy for life as well as your generosity and grace will be missed.

“ I cannot express what a great loss this is. We loved her. She was a joy! I wished we would have met in person, but we still had a bond that nothing could break. Karie supported me and encouraged me to “keep on keeping on”. She was always so very kind, funny and a very sweet person. I’m going to miss her quirkiness, her remarks about how some of the jewelry would “look great hanging on her rear view mirror”. So....Karie my friend, may the bling be with you! Heaven just gained another beautiful angel. Love you! Your Beth’s $5 Bling Family

“ I graduated with Karie and was fortunate to have had quite a few classes with her and usually sitting next to each other....Karie was truly a free spirit and let me tell you I enjoyed poking the bear just to get her reaction,we would fight like brother and sister and always end up getting in trouble but it was always in good fun.And we always had each other’s back.Thank you old friend for making school more tolerable and letting me be that annoying brother without literally kicking my ass for real.Rest in peace old friend Enjoy that morning coffee with the Angels...

“ she was so awesome to work with, I’m honored that I had the chance to know and learn from her- she taught me to be more tolerant of others and that smiles go for miles, one smile from her made you smile she was contagious. So sorry to see her gone my thoughts are with you all, this world definitely lost a really great lady.

“ Oh Karie, so many memories. I remember going to Big Wheel all the time with you, we would spend hours there. Or the time we were at the trailer on Thornapple and I was due to have Brooke any day and you would panic about how we would get to the Hospital fast enough. I remember your support and love during mom's passing. I remember you becoming a mom and taking all the kids to get there pictures done. I will have you in my heart forever. I love you. RIP. Ashton and Hunter, love you boys and am always here if there's anything I can do
