“ Tiny woman, big hugs. When they say Only the Good Die Young they must mean young at heart, otherwise Aunt Loretta would have left us long ago.

“ Loretta was a second mom to me. I remember so many times of being at the house and having a great time. She is so truly missed and is looking down on us all as she looked after us all while she was with us. Love you so much mom. Rest in heavenly peace. Love Tom Gooding.

“ Loretta was a second mom to me. I remember the laughs, the hours of playing cards and the many years we bowled together. I also remember that she would set you straight if you needed it. God gained an angel when he called her. Go rest high on that mountain my dear friend. You've earned it. Love you.

“ My favorite memory of my grandma, Loretta, is from my senior year of high school when she was still living in Indiana. I had gotten kicked out of school for fighting and she didn't get mad right away like a lot of family members did. She just asked me if it was a boy and what he did to deserve it. When I told her, she fist bumped me and congratulated me for giving him a piece of my mind. She wasn't one for violence except for when someone deserved it. She cheered me on from day one of my life and now she'll continue cheering for me from heaven. And I know that if I get into any other worthy fights, she'll be cheering me on instead of knocking me down.
