“ My sincere sympathy to the entire family on the loss of Mary. She was truly a treasure to know and love. I met Mary in the 70's when I was substitute teaching at Cody High School. She took me under her wing and she and Don were responsible for helping me find my teaching job at Birmingham Public Schools, where I worked for 35 years. We were friends from then on. She, Don, and my husband Ben golfed together often. They visited us up North to golf and then have dinner after, where she would always have treats for wait staff. I remember the day she told me about both her and Don's medical diagnosis. Over the years we talked on the phone continuously. I am really saddened to lose my great friend. Rest In Peace, Mary.

“ Our Mother, Marilyn Wilmore Sullivan, began a life long friendship with Mary at Charlotte High School. Through Christmas cards, letters and brief visits during our summertime trips from South Carolina, their friendship endured. Mom sends her love to Mary's family and friends and shares in the celebration of her life, a life well spent.

“ I worked with Mary for only one semester at Cody. She was friendly and extremely efficient in her job. I had the pleasure of working with her thru the years on different Business Education projects. I wish I had a chance to even know her better. She was the ultimate professional.

“ I first met Mary through my Aunt Marion and Uncle Bill in Lathrup Village, Michigan. My folks had been assigned to Brazil, and I stayed home with them in Michigan for my senior year in high school.

Marion and Mary were quite the duo!. Almost like sisters, at times they seemed inseparable: shopping, traveling, and being together. That was good fortune for me because neither of them had their own children. So, of course, I was pampered and spoiled! It was so much fun. I enjoyed being with them very much. Then, during my High School Reunion many years later, my wife and I had the pleasure of joining Mary and Don for lunch while we were in Birmingham, MI. Since our daughter is a school teacher, we shared a lot of things and "talked a lot of shop". Mary was such a cheerful and inspiring person.

Over the years, we stayed in touch, mainly by phone. Always thinking about when we could get back to Michigan to visit. But things in San Diego never worked out to do so.

Now we just have our memories. We will miss her.

Rest in peace, Ms. Mary.

Sincerely,

Bill and Socorro Collins and Family

“ I am so sorry for the loss of a great friend, aunt and a special person Mary S. Wadsten. She was the most independent, funny and sharming women I ever met. I called her my 21 year old friend, because thanks to her open mind she reached out the people across the generations. What a gift she had! At any placed she entered, the people were welcoming her with a big smile.

She continued the correspondence with far family after her mother, as eg. the ancestors from her father line, that she visited back in 1958 in Czech Republic. Thanks to her persistent work and care I could discover the family across the ocean and know you personally back in 2001. Mary and Don were such great hosts to me, so patients to understand my broken English, teach me golf and life wisdom.

She lived beautiful life next to her beloved husband Don, surrounded by caring family and friends. I know how much difficult was for her the loss of her husband that she supported with all her strengths up to his last days.

I will pray for her, may her soul rest in peace.

Love,

Michaela

“ Dear Wadsten Family, My Heart and Prayers go out to you during this difficult time. I know that you all will find comfort in reminiscing about all the special moments you have shared with her.

Mary means the world to my family and me. Mary and her beloved Don who proceeded her was so much a part of my families life. Mary felt more like family than the dear friend she was. She was a part of dance recitals, my daughter's wedding, and my granddaughter's surprise 18th birthday party which were significant moments in our lives. Mary and Don were integral parts of of my life, my daughter and my grandchildren's lives. Mary and Don shared books and always sent cards to the kids on holidays and birthdays. She was the best neighbor ever and we shared a special bond and friendship. I can go on and on about how great she is and all the special moments we shared , but there is not enough space. We were there for each other and supported each other.

We needed her to stay, however, Don, her dear beloved husband and our Heavenly Father beckoned our Angel to join them in the Kingdom. The beautiful flower will now adorn God's beautiful garden. I'll miss her, but she will always hold a special place in my heart and my families. May she rest in God's Heavenly Peace with the Love of her life, Don. I Love You, Mary!!! “ I will never forget Mary Wadsten. I first met Mary when she was my student teacher at Cody High School. She taught me everything I know and has always been tremendous inspiration to me. Mary and I became best of friends. We golfed together often and eventually added her husband, Don, and my son, Jeff, to make it a foursome. Don and Mary and my husband, sandy and I would get together often for golf and dinner. When Mary became sick, we would have to be content with just meeting for breakfast and we would both look forward to the two hour breakfasts. It would take that long to catch up. When we could no longer meet, Mary and I would talk by phone. I will miss Mary tremendously. No one can take her place. She was my best friend. I take comfort knowing she is now with her husband and best friend, Don. Hit 'em straight Mary. Carol Klein

“ *My dear friend Mary is gone:
May your love, radiance, wisdom and energy spread out like wildfire in this world. I will truly miss the conversations we had throughout the years not to mention the chocolates and the reading material that you would so neatly pack and underline the important stuff for me to read. Ann and Glenn and the rest of the family “I’m am truly sorry for your loss, she will surely be missed.”
It seems like yesterday when Mary , Don and Father Berg would visit after a round of golf, I’m sure by now they found each other in heaven and will start playing golf in the clouds. (She loves the game)
God bless you all and may Mary Rest In Peace.

“ I met Mary nearly twenty years ago when she and her husband Don first visited the restaurant where I work. We quickly became friends and looking back, she was the truest friend anyone could have. Mary had the kindest heart...she only gave and never expected anything in return. She cared so deeply and I will miss her so much. I did not deserve her friendship and love all these years, but I'm beyond grateful for it....she was such a blessing. I'm so very sorry for your loss and I pray God comforts and gives all of you strength.
