

Virginia Marie Potter

November 1, 1951 - February 21, 2021

Virginia Marie Potter, 69, of Charlotte, MI, died Sunday, February 21, 2021, surrounded by her loving family. Virginia was born November 1, 1951, in Charlotte, the daughter of Albert and Nellie (Johnson) Brandon. She graduated from Charlotte High School in 1969. On August 1, 1970 Virginia married Reginald "Reggie" Potter at the United Brethren Church in Charlotte and together spent the next 50 years creating their legacy. Virginia was a member of the local VFW and volunteered her time with their dinners, she also volunteered and assisted her daughter with her AFC home. She loved planning their annual family reunion. Virginia loved baking, she is known for her famous apple pies and oatmeal cookies. She adored time spent with her family, camping trips with grandchildren, visiting her mother at Tubbs Lake. Her biggest enjoyment in life was her children, grandchildren, and her marriage of 50 years. Some would say that Virginia was a feisty sweetheart who would let someone give their two cents but then she would jump in and speak her mind in a good caring way. Above all Virginia will be remembered for her unwavering love and support that she showed to her family and friends.

Virginia is survived by her husband, Reggie; children, Dena Jean (Robert) Cowick, Jason Joel (Lindsay) Potter, Adam Joseph (Jill) Potter; grandchildren, Jordyn, Sydney, Natalie, Olivia, Joel, Laine, Chase, Charlie, and Brody Boone; siblings, Sandra Eggleston and Ruth Lawcock. She was predeceased by her parents; siblings, Albert "Vern" Brandon, Mary Myers, Robert Brandon, Glen Brandon, Dixie Weaver, Donald Brandon, Ronald Brandon; grandson, Dylan Boone.

“ I love and miss my aunt Virginia Potter always have always will. I remember being at aunt Virginia and uncle Reggie's house and enjoying the Brandon family reunion at their house and I remember aunt Virginia's hugs and kisses the most and when you left from seeing her you never left without a hug and kiss and Aunt Virginia telling you she loves you and be careful and stay safe and don't be a stranger and come back and see her again soon. Lots of love and continued prayers sent to all the family and friends at this time for their loss. I wish I could of attended the funeral but I didn't know anything until last night by my cousin Rose Eggleston telling me and unfortunately I can't make it in person today and I've tried to attend via online but can't figure it out.
