

Alan Dale Sinclair

June 14, 1949 - December 15, 2024

We celebrate the beautiful life of Alan Dale Sinclair, a humble and hardworking man who brought joy and warmth to everyone around him. Born on June 14th, 1949, in Battle Creek, MI, Alan's journey was filled with love, laughter, and cherished memories until his peaceful passing on December 15th, 2024, in Charlotte, MI.

Alan's dedication to hard work was evident in his long-standing career at General Motors, where he began as a laborer in 1968 and retired in 1999. His passion for the outdoors was unmatched; he cherished moments cutting wood, sipping a cold beer, and tending to his bountiful garden that could feed the entire neighborhood. In his younger years, Alan embraced farm life, raising pigs, cattle, and horses.

Music was a constant companion for Alan, who often had a guitar in his hands. He delighted many with his talent, playing in numerous local venues throughout his life. Alan also found joy in hunting, fishing for bluegills, and spending time with his beloved brothers.

Some of Alan's most treasured moments were spent with his family.

Wednesday night bowling with his son Mike, playing Euchre during holiday gatherings, and Father's Day weekends at Bass Camp on Martini Lake were among his favorite traditions.

Alan's family meant the world to him. He is lovingly remembered by his devoted wife, Jacquelin A. Sinclair; his sons, Brad Sinclair, Michael Sinclair, Marc Sinclair, and Brian Sinclair; his daughter, Audrey Brayton; and his cherished grandchildren, Bradley, Madison, Jackson, Dylan, Emily, Michael II, Jade, Logan, Jordan, Taylor, Celina, Wyatt, Zack, and Cody. He also leaves behind his siblings, brother, Glen Sinclair; sisters, Nancy Gyger and Elaine Canfield. Alan was preceded in death by his parents, Donald, and Leona (Pollack) Sinclair; and his brother, Duane Sinclair.

Alan's humble spirit and hardworking nature left a lasting impact on all who knew him. His legacy of love, joy, and dedication continues to inspire his family and friends. As we remember Alan, we celebrate the beautiful life he lived and the countless happy memories he gifted us.
