“ Carol, Joyce, Alan, Lori, Jeff and Diane: I'm sorry I wasn't able to attend Sonny's funeral yesterday, but my thoughts and prayers were with you. I missed seeing cousins. I'll always remember the time when Chuck & I lived with you, we talk about it often, also, the one-room school. Such memories! Cousin, Ardith

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I will be praying for your family. I'm sorry we didn't know until the day after. Diane, I'm am keeping you on top of my prayer list you are such a good friend and your Dad was a very special person he always had a smile on his face and always willing to sit and talk if you wanted to. You share the same qualities. All my love to you. Ron and I miss seeing you.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Sonny's passing. I was his manager when he worked for D&L Fuels. Of everyone I have ever worked with there has never been a harder worker. He was always a pleasure to be around and had great bits of wisdom.

“ Dear Diane, Alan, Lori, Jeff, and families, Sorry I'm unable to attend. I appreciate Uncle Sonny's support over the years, particularly during those difficult years in High School and College, those years where your not sure what your doing; career choices, how you fit in this world. I also appreciate the effort he made to see me when I rolled into town We shared the love of sports, particularly football. Gary, Steve and I still talk about Uncle Sonny throwing the football around with us while we were in high school, and him following our weekly games in the local newspaper. And who could forget the party at Aunt Caroles, when he got knocked out playing football with the kids. This all leads to an Uncle that you felt supported you, glad he was a part of my team.

“ Dear Alan, Lori, Jeff, and Diane, I have such fond memories of Uncle Sonny. He was always very good to me. Can't help but think that he is reunited with Grandma Fuhrman. (She's probably telling him what to do!) Sorry I can't be there for the funeral. You are in my thought and prayers. Love, Marcia
