“ I remember Al taking Tracy and I fishing. I caught a huge bass, and when Al helped me pull it out of the water he told me we had to put it back. He took the time and showed Tracy and I all the eggs the mama fish I had caught had on her and he told me how wrong it would be to take her out when she had all the babies on her. He seemed bummed to put her back but he did the right thing! RIP Al!

“ Remembering fun times growing up with memories from the farm house. Collecting eggs, horse shoeing, good food, jokes and playing with my stuffed pet snake... Yep not a teddy bear, a stuffed pet snake a special gift from Al. After years of not seeing him, looked over at stop light there he was sitting in a car next to me with window down..."Hey snake girl" WOW...that was pretty cool!! R.I.P my friend of 40 years.... Love , Stephie
