“ You are finally at peace and home for eternal life. I'm so glad we were able to reunite on FB. To see your beautiful gardens and your kitty's. I will always remember your fried chicken, hanging out in the kitchen and the family reunion you so graciously took me to. You shared all your skills with Sue, your memory will never be forgotten, as your daughter Sue will carry on your legacy. RIH dearheart

“ Anna you are on a most glorious journey into eternal life in heaven with all the friends and family who have gone before you. I am so glad I found you while doing my Kracht family ancestry research. You and my father, Floyd B. Kracht, were 1st cousins so you are my 1st cousin 1x removed. My father never knew his aunts and uncles or cousins but I grew up hearing about "Aunt Essie", your mother. I treasure all the phone conversations we enjoyed over the past few years and know that one day we will meet in person. Until then, I know your are enjoying a wonderful reunion with your eternal family who were waiting to welcome you home. When you meet my father, you can tell him how you met me here on this temporary earthly home.

So, off you go on that final journey beyond the stars into the most beautiful place of joy and peace where you will join the family that I will meet one day.

My condolences to Anna's family who knew and loved her. Suzanne I know that your mother's heart was full of joy because of those very special days you got to spend with each other before she had to leave.

“ Our Mom was an extraordinary woman. She did not have an easy life, but she loved her four children deeply and put us first in her life.
