“ I am so very sorry to hear of Annetta’s passing. She and I were very good friends as teens. We had reconnected a couple of years ago and intended to continue meeting for lunch occasionally. Unfortunately between Skip’s health and hers we had to be content to continue our friendship online. May God give all of you peace at this very difficult time.

Sincerely,

Stephanie McClure Baker

so many memories of time spent together in our younger years while our husbands worked at GM. We would go out dancing and having fun. Then just sitting with our kids smoking and drinking pop. She used to curl my girls hair and put it on top of their heads. She helped me thru a miscarriage. My condolences to Marcy Tracy and all the grandkids and to Skip. May you find peace in knowing she was a fine human being. Remember we had your wedding reception at our house in Pottersville? Thoughts and prayers to all of you,. Joyce Root
