“ Ardyth was a special person and our dear friend. She told things like they were even when you did not want to hear it! She loved her West Virginia roots. She and Jim shared a very special bond that not all marriages experience. We all had some fun times and shared a lot of laughs together. Now she is with Jim where she wanted to be. We will always hold her in our hearts. Our sympathy to all who loved her. We are the lucky ones for having known her.
