

Austin Joe Reichert

February 6, 1994 - August 5, 2017

Austin Joe Reichert, 23, of Charlotte died, Saturday, August 5, 2017. He was born February 6, 1994 to Gary and Jennie (Day) Reichert. Austin will always be remembered for his contagious smile, being a hard worker, a tough guy with a big heart, always being there for anyone, and most importantly being an amazing father, son, grandson, uncle, and friend. Austin's hobbies included: video games, drawing, being outdoors, kayaking, fishing and spending time with his niece and nephews. Above all he was most proud of his boys, a quote from Austin, "Everything done is for my handsome young men, you're what it's all about." The Reichert family has a message for all: "Mental health is a serious thing. When someone talks about it, don't take it lightly. You dig deep and you help them. You keep them close and remind them that things will be okay."

He is survived by parents, Gary and Jennie (Day) Reichert; sons, Andre and Dominic (DJ); siblings, Tyler (Heather) Reichert, Miranda Day (Jon Dockett), and Lacey Reichert; grandparents, Randy and Virginia Day, Ron and Sharon Partridge; great-grandparents, Esther Silva and Raul (Mercedes) Luna; niece and nephews, Adelina, Linkin, Nolan, Thomas and Cooper; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins. Austin was predeceased by great-grandparents, Dorothy Partridge, Katherine Howard, Estella Luna and Burniece Day-Love; and great-great-grandma Inez Silva, Anna Wright and Julia Luna.

“ My husband and I will always remember that little boy walking down the aisle at his mommy and daddy's wedding in his little suit. You had that adorable smile then and you had it again when I saw you last month. I'm so thankful for that time and getting to know you even just a little bit. I loved watching you be with your family, your son and your dogs..you and I had that in common! We loved our dogs! When I look at your face, I see the face of my dad when he was young and my son, one of your many cousins. You will always be remembered and loved. RIP dear Austin. Our hearts go out to all that love you and will miss your presence in their lives. Love, Michiko, Ralph, Sean, Scott, Merlyn LeRoy “ Never will forget having you in daycare and you would chase the frogs around my pool. You loved trying to get them before they jumped in, until the day you lost your balance and you went in right after the frog and the pool was still nasty green from winter. We laughed so hard. You always had us smiling. Fly free and fly high you will never be forgotten.
