

Barbara Maude Radee

December 27, 1928 - September 8, 2015

Barbara M. Radee, 86, of Charlotte, MI, died peacefully on September 8, 2015. Barbara was born December 27, 1928 in Lansing, MI, the daughter of George and Alice (Houseman) Lewellyn. In her early years, she worked at Sherman's pharmacy in Charlotte, where, while working the soda fountain, she met her husband, George Radee. The two married in 1948 and started their family. Barbara worked several years as a cook in the Radee's family restaurant in Charlotte, but the majority of her time was devoted to her family. She also loved her dogs, and was always ready to shop. In later years, she enjoyed spending time up North at the lake with her family, cooking and fishing, and special trips to the casino. Above all, Barbara loved her family.

She is survived by daughters Diane (Phil) Brammer and Vicki Wright; sons, Toby (Rhonda) Radee and George (Kathy) Radee; 7 grandchildren; 5 great-grandchildren; 4 step-great-grandchildren; sister, Nancy (Terry) Moore; brothers, Jim (Arless) Lewellyn and Dick (Marlene) Lewellyn; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband of 64 years, George Raymond Radee in 2012.

Private interment will take place in Bosworth Cemetery. The family would like to thank Moore's Adult Foster Care for their loving care of Barbara.

If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to Eaton Community

Palliative Care. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Barbara on her tribute page at www.prayfuneral.com. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home.

“ When I moved into "the neighborhood" ten years ago, Barb welcomed me with flowers and friendship. With first George passing and then Barb moving, the neighborhood has never been the same. I'm so glad I knew her.

“ I grew up next door to Barb. George and Barb frequently sat on their front porch and I would see them as I walked home from the bus stop. They always asked me how school was and what I learned. They had very large hearts.
