

Betty A Heinze

September 27, 1933 - April 13, 2001

Betty A. Heinze, 67, a great mother and wife from Potterville, died April 13, 2001. Mrs. Heinze was born July 27, 1933 in Lansing; the daughter of Harold and Edna (Roosa) Roan. She and her husband Ron, who survives, owned Heinze TV in Potterville. Mrs. Heinze was a member of Cerebral Aneurysm/Tumor Survivors and Saint Mary's Catholic Church in Charlotte, where she was a bus driver and also an active member of the Altar Society. She enjoyed bird watching and collecting bird figurines. Mrs. Heinze is also survived by her sons: Mark (Marsha) Heinze of Seattle and Mike and Jeff Heinze of Potterville; daughter Kathy DeGroot of Wolverine; nine grandchildren; six great grandchildren; brother Richard (Rachael) Roan and sister Beverly Cooper. Visitation was held on Sunday, April 15, 2001 from 6:00p.m. to 8:00p.m. at Pray Funeral Home. A funeral mass was said by Father Denis Spitzley on Monday, April 16, 2001 at 11:00a.m. at Saint Mary's Church in Charlotte. Interment was in Benton Township Cemetery, Potterville, Michigan.

Tribute Wall

Kristen
Smith

“ Grandma...I have so many fond memories of you. I remember how Uncle Jeff got in trouble for giving you beer, hoe you yelled at Trev & I for wrestling in the basement, swimming & playing with Buffy & you yelling at me to not touch the door. :) Christmas was always amazing and I still remember mornings getting up and you and Grandpa would be at the kitchen table reading. So many great times.

Kristen Smith - July 13, 2015 at 05:17 AM