“ I was so sorry to hear of Aunt Beulah's passing. She had been on my mind these past few months. I wish I had been able to speak with her one last time. I remember when Uncle Vance and Aunt Beulah use to take me to church with them when I was only but a child. Aunt Beulah was there at my Baptism and was there when I lost my parents, grandmother and sister. I will always remember that twinkle in her eye and her caring nature. I am sure she is with her family in heaven. My heart is with those who loved and will miss her the most. I am sure she will always be smiling down on you.

“ Love this woman. She was a beautiful lady and loved to tell you a joke. You could have been in the joke. Wanted to make me laugh. I used to wonder why Pray funeral home would be calling me, but it was Beulah reminding me that I was on to greet at church that coming Sunday. She always had a warm smile. Will miss her. I know that she is telling jokes an laughing now with the Angels there in Heaven.

“ Beulah was still working at Pray Funeral Home when I started working there. Her sense of humer was most unique and I will never forget the "Toe Truck" story! We missed her greatly when she retired. I am sorry to hear of her passing, many condolences to her family.
