“ I am so sad to hear the passing of your dad. I will miss him coming in to get his hair cut, he was the sweetest person and never picky .always told me to peel his head like an onion. Heaven has gained another Angel. May u all find comfort in all your memories.

“ Brian was a great resident and then a great neighbor. After Larry's death and I became his next door neighbor, he told me not to leave my porch light on when I left at night as it let people know I was gone. As it is dark in my little corner when I arrived home he would get up and turn his light on so I could see and get in. Always made me feel safe as I adjusted to my new life. A beacon of light for sure! RIP Brian. My sympathy to his family.
