“ Grandmama how to I even begin to say goodbye to you..? You practically raised me and Dakota and we wouldn't be who we are today without you two❤️ When we were little and life got hard you and grandpa were ALWAYS there! Shopping and dinner every weekend, picking strawberries, tomatoes, squash, zucchini and more out of your garden and squishing all the tomato worms we would find. Catching tadpoles in the swamp out back, motorcycle and snowmobile rides, holiday dinners (which I will cherish forever and will never be the same), you paid for our school clothes and sporting events and were always there to cheer us on❤️ You taught me how to cook, to always tell the truth even if it's hard, that people are capable of change and that everyone deserves a second and sometimes a third chance, to be kind but still take no crap. You were always a phone call away when ever I needed you even if I just needed to call and vent or call to cry I could tell you anything. You were my angel on earth and now you are my guardian angel in heaven. Watch over my babies.. I don't even have to say that I know you will. Kiss Kaitlynn for us and enjoy seeing that beautiful baby girl of yours once again.I don't know where I would be in life without you and grandpa. Your presence on my life hold so many memories that I will treasure longer than forever💔💔 I love you so much grandma. Until I see you over the rainbow and on the other side of the stars
Love FOREVER,
Your Ashlee Ann❤️🌈★

“ Aunt Carol Ann treated me as if she was my mother when I went to stay at my Grandparents when I was only three and four. My mother, Elaine, said that Carol Ann was going to be a very good mother someday, which- she is the best. Godspeed on your journey, but you are already there. Your first Shumaker nephew, Rod. And we always enjoyed visiting you and Uncle Dick, having coffee, until our lives got busy. We will always love you our aunt
