

Carrie Jean Ripley

July 14, 1999 - January 10, 2021

Carrie Jean Ripley, 21, of Dimondale, a very special young lady who taught many people about love, died January 10, 2021. Carrie, "Carebear" to her family and loved ones, was born on July 14, 1999 in Charlotte to Robert and Joanna (Hull) Ripley. She loved everybody and always lit up the room with a smile when someone else entered. She championed through her health challenges and serious illnesses. Carrie was one who comforted others with her hugs and devotion to them. She was a music lover, and loved being sung and talked to. She enriched the lives of those in her family as well as her friends.

Carrie is survived by her parents, Robert and Joanna Ripley; siblings, Brandon Ripley, Andrew Garfield, Timothy William Ripley, and Taylor Ripley and Shawna (Maurer) Ripley; grandmother, Laurine Sue Ripley of Nashville; uncles, Henry Bigelow, and John Halstead; aunts, Marilyn Rosas, Carolyn Halstead, Dianna Wallace, Kimberly Ripley, and Tammy McNeff; niece, Aaliyah Ripley; nephew, Isaac Ripley; and cousins, Phillip Rosas, and Megan McNeff. She was predeceased by her grandparents, Ruthea Goble Hull, Phillip Hiram Hull, and William Harrison Ripley.

If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions on behalf of the family may be made to the Pray Funeral Home to help with the family's expenses. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Carrie on her Tribute “ Carrie brought so much joy to my classroom in the 5 years I got to spend as her teacher. As I recall, Carrie and I both started at Meadowview on the same day in the fall of 2002. She was absolutely adorable - a blond-haired, chubby-cheeked, smiley 3 year old, and I remember unbuckling her from her chair and picking her up as soon as I met her. Carrie was almost always smiling, moving to whatever music was playing, and when something really got her excited, she would let out an ecstatic shout followed by giggles while everyone around her couldn't help but laugh along. Thank you for sharing Carrie with me so many years ago. I can only imagine the light that she was in your lives, Rob and Joanna. Praying peace and comfort for you as you miss your beautiful girl.
