“ My sincere and heartfelt condolences to the whole family. She will truly be missed. I met Cathy in the 70's when she married Fred. What a caring, giving, generous person! My sister and I were invited over anytime to swim in the pool. Or hang out with Monty, Jane and Laurie. Later we babysat Patty and Mitch. We spent a lot of time playing 3 handed euchre, Cathy, my sister and I. Cathy taught me how to make delicious pies. And she always had that wonderful smile and infectious laugh. She was truly a gem to be around.
