

Cathy Sue Sulcer

November 17, 1954 - September 2, 2017

Cathy Sue Sulcer, 62, of Bellevue, passed away on September 2, 2017. She was born on November 17, 1954, to John M. and Maudie J. (Jeffrey) Keeney in Madison, West Virginia. Cathy graduated from Olivet High School. She married Ernest Sulcer on January 17, 1976, and together they raised four children.

Cathy will be remembered for having the "biggest heart." She loved everyone, and would do anything for them. Cathy loved the fact that she had a close knit family. She was a great homemaker, cooked from scratch, and taught all her children how to cook. She enjoyed painting ceramics, stain glass and other various art projects. Cathy's love for singing lead her to singing with a band. She also loved dancing, and reading, especially the Bible.

She is survived by her husband, Ernest Sulcer; children, Ernest John (Ashley) Sulcer, Christopher Max Sulcer, Michael Eric Sulcer, and Terra Star Sulcer; five grandchildren; a brother, John Keeney; and many other loved ones. Cathy was predeceased by her parents, John M. Keeney and Maudie J. Keeney.

“ My mother was my very best friend. She loved me for me. Not who she thought I ought to be. Didn't judge me just gave me unconditional love. Always there to protect me from what she could. Always there to listen or give advice. Always there at home with a meal ready at hand made by my mothers own hands. She never made anything out of a box. Always homemade from scratch stuff. I always told her how CRAZY she was for having four children. Yet she cursed me with (LOL) with 3 girls...that are angels that grandma always spoiled them with love. Gifts or food! Mom was the best woman I know. Not just because she was my mother because she was a genuine sincere person. Who was loved by many many others.

“ I remember years ago, Cathy, Tina and I got lifetime memberships to fitness usa. We used to go workout, or do water aerobics and swim and soak in the hottub. After all of the exercise, we would go out to pizza hut or someplace and have lunch. I'm not sure how many calories we lost working out that way, but it was fun!

“ Guess God knew that I needed more than just a cousin when I was an only child till I was 14yrs.old when my parents had Diana.Thats why he sent Aunt Maudie/Uncle John to live in Indpls. for my early childhood..I was Blessed to have you not just as my cousin,But as a younger sister to share EVERYTHING with...We two bonded like glue and then we added our year older cousin Gloria(passed May2008) which then made us The Three Muskateers.Ive relived those years over and over in my mind these past few months especially.I'd moved from my home of 33 years and in the process a xmas card envelope of your family pics fell onto my foot.One of Mike's prom with a young lady named Emily& you,another with you& your dog Molly&several others.I even had that dream of you crying & looking so frail right before your brother John reached out and called me.I had this strong presence of you all around me.I guess some bonds Never are broken,no matter what we do in our lives.I've tried so many avenues to get back in touch,as I now know you know too.I will forever hold you close in my heart & forever smile when I watch the Wizard of Oz when the Lion said "put 'em up,put 'em up" No one else could sound like that lion but you..isnt it silly how strange little acts stay with us for life..If anything can be gained from this whole thing,,IF anyone reads this and you havent talked to a family member or a once loved one in a while...Please dont have to wait till they're on the other side of life just to say "I wanted to call/stop by to see how you are and let you know you mean something in my life or just say I Love You.I will forever be wondering if there wasnt some way I could have found you...(Have you ever heard of fb cuz??? Gods Blessings and Comfort to All that was Graced with Cathys presence in their life...ShaRon Ann “ Cathy sparked my love for cooking. I still think of her when I make a knock out meal for my family, especially when I make one of her recipes. We shared a lot of laughs a long time ago. Thank you for those great memories.

“ I always remember our mother waiting on all of her four children growing up and most of all me I would say. Almost every day I remember coming home from school or playing outside with neighbor kids and there mom was cooking dinner for us, which I was very appreciative of, but also would become impatient as a young boy if it wasn't ready the minute I walked through the door because I was always STARVING! Lol. I reflect upon this many years later now that I have two amazing daughters of my own that I cook for and take care of and realize just how easy and amazing we truly had it growing up with our mom taking care of us the way she did! Wow! Her love was truly unconditional for ALL of us! Mom, you will forever be in my heart and thoughts and your legacy is carried on through all of your children and grandchildren. ♡♡

*God called your name so gently
That only you could hear
No one heard the footsteps of the Angel drawing near
Softly from the shadows
There came a gentle call,
You closed your eyes and went to sleep
You quietly left us all.
I love you and miss you more than anyone knows.
Until meet again, Rest in peace.
Love always from you brother.*
