

Charity Garvie

October 6, 1981 - August 12, 2018

Charity Ann Garvie, 36, of Potterville, died unexpectedly August 12, 2018. She was born October 6, 1981 in Lansing to Scott and Linda Jo (Miller) Garvie. She graduated from Olivet High School in 2000. She loved spending time with her daughters, Cheyenne and Carmella. Many will remember her as a very protective big sister to her brother, Jeremy. Like her name, Charity was always putting others needs before her own, and was very generous of her time to help. She was a great conversationalist, and loved to talk, shop, and go to the beach. Football was her favorite sport, and she loved BOTH MSU and U of M, as well as the Detroit Lions. Trips to the casino with her mom, and eating out at Chinese restaurants were some of her favorite things to do.

Charity is survived by her daughters, Cheyenne Rose Garvie and Carmella Rayne Davis; mother, Linda Jo Miller; brother, Jeremy Garvie; grandmother, Phyllis Miller; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins. She was predeceased by her dad, Scott Garvie in 2005; and grandparents, Dennis Miller and Doris and Clarence Garvie.

Friends are encouraged to support Charity's family at visitation and funeral services at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte. Visitation is Thursday, August 16, 6-8:00 PM. Funeral services are Friday, August 17, 2:00 PM with Pastor Charles Jenson officiating. Memorial contributions are suggested to the family or Pray Funeral Home to help with funeral expenses. I only know Cheyenne, sadly I never got to meet her Mom. But Chey, you are a wonderful and strong young lady that's been given this huge burden to bear. But you can and you will...lean on friends and family whenever and as often as you need to to begin healing.
