

Charles H Weaver

December 15, 1927 - June 22, 2016

Charles H. Weaver, 88, lifelong resident of Charlotte, Michigan, died June 22, 2016. He was born December 15, 1927 to Robert and Dorothy (Kingman) Weaver. Charles graduated from Charlotte High School in 1946 after setting the school 100 meter dash record, a record that stood for 49 years. In his early years, he enjoyed tinkering with cars, making it only natural that he took a job at the local Ford garage as a mechanic. He worked over 40 years, as well as farmed in his spare time. Charles was a 4H leader in woodworking, a hobby he enjoyed throughout his lifetime and especially in retirement.

He married Marian E. Ball, whom he had known since his childhood Sunday School, on September 3, 1948, and the two raised six children in Charlotte. The family enjoyed trips to their cottage near Pentwater. They were also active members of West Benton United Methodist Church where Charles served in youth fellowship.

Charles is survived by his wife Marian E. (Ball) Weaver; sons, Clare Weaver, Lynn (Judy)Weaver, Norman (SuJun) Weaver; daughters Claudia (Bob Reichel) Weaver, Jeryl (David) Foy, and Gayle Fox; grandchildren Rachelle Priese, Charlotte Weaver, Patrick Reichel, Callie Reichel, Charles Jacob (Stephanie) Weaver, Emily (Herb) Haygood, Jordan (Lauren) Smitter, Forrest Fox, Madison Fox, Damien Weaver, and Cain Weaver; and great-grandchildren Adriana and Ashleigh Priese, Chloe and Charlie Weaver, Spencer Smitter, and Olive Fox; brother Roy Weaver; and sister Jane Weaver. He was predeceased by his parents Robert and Dorothy, and brother Amos.
