

Christopher L. Redman

July 9, 1954 - July 23, 2015

Christopher Lee Redman, 61, of Charlotte died unexpectedly on Thursday, July 23, 2015. Chris was born July 9, 1954, in Eaton Rapids, MI, the son of Russell Eugene and Sharon Adell (Austin) Redman. He spent his childhood years in Lansing before graduating from Eastern High School in 1972. Sports were an important part of his life as he played basketball and baseball on church teams. He was a huge fan of the Tigers, the Pistons and the Spartans. Chris was also a very intelligent man, reading encyclopedias and countless books, especially Stephen King. He was gifted with trivia and card games and found great interest in numismatics. Music was a big part of Chris' life, especially Pink Floyd, The Beatles, Led Zeppelin and other rock bands of the 1960's and 1970's. Chris was passionate about cooking, and worked as a kitchen manager for the Eaton Place in Charlotte. His food was locally renowned, especially his notorious rice pudding and alfredo sauce. Above all, Chris loved his family.

He is survived by his children; Rachel (John) Cattron, Ryan Tabor, Casie (Nicolas) Binger, Benjamin Redman and Carlyssa Redman; granddaughter, Grace Cattron; siblings, Steven Redman, Kimberly Corkwell, Tanya Nickolas, Stacy (Eric) Wiseman and Debora Mitchell; aunts, Ruth Perry and Eleanor (Wayne) Winter; uncle, Bill Austin; as well as many other family members. He was predeceased by his parents and his brothers, Russell Redman and Scott Redman.

A memorial service will be held at 11:05 a.m. on Tuesday, July 28, 2015 at the First Baptist Church of Charlotte with Rev. Richard Wilford officiating. In lieu of flowers, contributions to assist with final expenses may be made to the family in care of Rachel Cattron and sent to Pray Funeral Home. PLAY BALL!

Chris was one of the friendliest and gentle man I know. My heart aches for you Ryan, Casie, Ben and Carlyssa. May God hold you in His arms and give you such assuredness that your dad is with Him until you're together again.
