“ Cindy and I knew each other since we were both 16. I in April, she in July. We did so much together from roller skating to partying. We had our good and bad times, mostly good through the years. In fact we were mingled together through family marriages. Cindi will be missed by many many friends and family. Cindy will never be forgotten!!

As the months pass I seem to think of Cindy more. Cindy could go out of her way to help and do for others. I remember the time seeing her go canoeing down the river (in Dimondale) waving, and hollering to me, and laughing up a storm as she yelled up at me. Cindy could be a great friend as we were for 20 plus years. Yes I seem to think of Cindy more so lately and wish that she didn't have to go through the pain she endured before her passing.
