“ I remember the day Cynthia was born. Her mother was my oldest sister, Joyce (Gasser) Borgman. She had come to our house early that morning to have my mother, Atha Gasser accompany her to the hospital. I was 11 years old at the time. Nancy and I send our condolences to Cindy's daughters and all her relatives and friends. Even though throughout most of our lives we lived in different geographical areas of our country, we always were in touch. She was a thoughtful, kind, and caring person whom both Nancy and I loved and enjoyed.
