

Dana Maria Keusch

March 24, 1965 - June 6, 2023

Dana Maria (Johnson) Keusch, an independent and strong willed mother, grandmother, and sister, died on June 6, 2023, after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer. She however didn't let the cancer define her life as she was blessed with 56 years prior to the diagnosis. Dana was born on March 24, 1965, the daughter of Edward "Ted" and Ingrid (Stein) Johnson. She earned a Bachelor's Degree and started her own business as a Title Abstractor for Keusch Title Search. Once her father Ted became sick with Alzheimer's, she left her job to take care of him. Her hobbies included watching crime shows, enjoying a Coca-Cola, trips to the lake, being with her children and grandchildren, and most importantly spoiling her dogs.

Dana is survived by her children, Alexis Engel, Melanie (Seth Pallissard) Keusch, and Chandler Keusch; grandchildren, Breyten Beals, and Penelope Pierce; sisters, Rebecca (Michael) Curtis, and Deborah Kufita; and her beloved dog, Pumpkin. She was predeceased by her parents; brother, Michael Johnson; and dogs, Bella and Peaches.

“ There's simply too many memories to list. Dana has been part of our life for a very long time. She loved all her family members more than anyone could know. Her heart was one of the biggest attributes. Our family will miss Dana a lot. I let go with some trepidation, so that my friend may prepare a place in God's Kingdom for the rest of us. Rest in Peace Dana!
