“ Words cannot describe how sorely missed you truly are Mr. Daniel Dupree. "Yes that's a D,, a CAPITAL D that is!"-- you always said. Our every morning coffee and news binge, every baby doll play date with Abigail, every mess we cleaned of Marcus', and every coin you collected with and for Alexis. EVERYTHING about you will be missed. We use to talk about how what I'd do if something was to happen to you as far as Mike...just know I will not leave his side. I will do any and everything to keep hia head above water and we will make it through this one way or the other TOGETHER. I love you Dan and I will NEVER EVER EVER forget our most fondest of memories. I know you're at peace and I know you're not in pain anymore, I only ask for you to help watch upon our family and children while you're up there playing cards and talking to God. Rest in paradise sweet sweet angel. xoxoxo

“ Dan, why did you have to leave us so soon, way to early, I am so glad you spent those days with me after my dad's death. Dan, you were one of the best cousins a man could ask for, we've, hunted, fished, played cards and just walked and talked, you were always there for me no matter what. Your kind loving disposition will always be how I strive to gauge my own attitude. I love you cousin, until we meet again, Beat The King, Kid - Kid!

“ There is not a page quite large enough to share my memories with Danny. He was a special person to me and quite unique. There is a great deal of unspoken love. There is no one that can take his place. Too many things left unsaid. You will be in my heart. Diane
