

David 'Larry' Foster

April 25, 1940 - May 25, 2019

David "Larry" Foster of Charlotte, MI, an avid hunter and fisherman that could always find the best fishing hole, died May 25, 2019. Larry, 79, was born April 25, 1940 in Lansing, MI to David and Agatha (Massey) Foster. He worked at General Motors on the line, retiring several years ago. Larry loved being outdoors, all of his favorite activities revolved around that, including: hunting, fishing, gold prospecting, traveling to Colorado, Canada, Alaska and Hawaii, and even watching the outdoor channel on TV. He had a large collection of game trophies to enjoy while he was indoors. Sixteen years ago Larry had a change of heart and became a Christian, enjoying studying the Bible and praying with his wife, Barb, every day. Barb is comforted knowing she will see him again in Heaven. Larry loved hugs and sharing his faith with others. Larry valued friendship, and if you were his friend he let you know he loved you.

Larry is survived by his wife of almost 27 years, Barbara (Shaver) Foster; children, David (Connie) Foster, Martin (Kathy) Foster, Joe Wheeldon, William (Beverly) Stone, Michael (Elisabeth) Stone, Diane (John) Wiley, and Toscha Klopp; 15 grandchildren; and 9 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by daughter, Sonja Crabtree; his parents; and a brother and a sister.

“ Barb, I was sad to hear of Larry's passing. I enjoyed what time he stayed with us for respite, he was sweet and friendly to visit with. I will miss running into him in the stores and at the courthouse music shows and places like before. May you find comfort knowing he had a mansion waiting for him. God Bless.
