January 11, 1940 - November 5, 2022

David Floyd Foutch, 82, of Charlotte, an avid bow hunter passed away yet not without first bagging his deer this fall. David was born on January 11, 1940 to Ray and Ida (Graves) Foutch in Roscommon, Michigan. Being outside in nature was a favorite activity especially if he could be with his family or friends. Being outside in nature was his favorite activity which usually included hunting, fishing, and enjoying the beauty of nature and wildlife. He loved big and dearly loved each of his family members. He had a strong belief in community, voting, but even stronger in God. David will be missed by his family, friends and neighbors.
