

Davine Yvonne Cochran

June 6, 1939 - August 4, 2024

Davine Yvonne Cochran, happiest when busy cleaning, passed away peacefully in her home on August 4, 2024. Davine, 85, was born to David and Audrey (Lynxwiler) Kelley on June 6, 1939 in Sikeston, MO. On August 31, 1956, Davine married Roy Cochran and the two began a family and raising their four children together. Her family and friends were a central part of her life memories of which the family all cherish today. Always active, Davine enjoyed working and fixing things up the way she liked them to be. A writer, she could often be found penning music to a song or playing songs on her guitar. She was also an avid reader with the thoughtfulness of once her book collection got too large, she donated her books to the public library for others to enjoy. Cleanliness is next to Godliness. You could count on finding her with a vacuum, a dust rag, washing dishes, windows, or a paint brush in hand re-painting a room white to freshen it up. It is believed that Davine would paint anything and everything white. Somehow, she made us all comfortable at home even though it was always spotless. With Davine it was never hard to guess what she was thinking in her very straightforward and to the point communication style. Davine was very meticulous about her flower gardens. Above all her biggest enjoyment in life was her family.

Davine is survived by her children, Terry (Kevin) Besey, Sherry (Gary) Burditt, Thomas (Mitzi) Cochran, and Anthony "Andy" (Misti) Cochran; 11 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; 6 great-great-grandchildren, with one on the way; siblings, Thomas (Betty) Kelley, Bonnie (Charles) Monan. She was preceded in death by her husband, Roy Cochran; granddaughter, Esthony Cochran; sister, Paula Kelley; brother and sister-in-law, David (Jan) Kelley; and her parents.

“ Sending our love, and deepest condolences to your the family at this time.

While working for Gary & Sherry I had the opportunity to get to know her mother and even help her with her hair on a few occasions. We always had a good laugh.

May the beautiful memories you have shared over the years help to bring your family comfort in the coming days
