

Dolores 'Kay' Cole

July 9, 1950 - February 10, 2019

Dolores 'Kay' Cole, 68, of Charlotte, a feisty spirit and life of the party, died February 10, 2019. She was born in Bridgeton, New Jersey on July 9, 1950 to Daniel and Mary (Schmidt) Moncrief. She graduated from Charlotte High School, and then married Carroll J. "Onion" Cole on May 1, 1970, and together they raised four daughters. Kay was always very sassy, and passed some of this on to her daughters. She worked at Owens-Illinois and later at AE Hoover in Charlotte. Kay enjoyed scratch-off lottery tickets, fishing, camping, morning drives with her husband and dogs, listening to country music, and especially spending time with her grandkids. In their younger years, Kay and Onion loved square dancing with neighborhood friends.

Kay is survived by her husband of nearly 49 years, Carroll J. "Onion" Cole; daughters, Cheryl L. Miller, Angie (Loyd) Cords, Carol (David) Betts, and Katherine "Katie" Cole; grandchildren, Joshua D. Miller and Shaine A. Miller; sisters, Anna (Jim) Mullins, Katherine (Jerry) McCormick, and Ruth (Gary) Cole; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; brothers, Jack, Tom, and Bill Moncrief; and nephew, John Moncrief.

If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to a Charity of Your Choice. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Dolores 'Kay' on her Tribute Page at www.PrayFuneral.com. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

“ I have so many memories of the Moncrief family. Of Kay being the most outspoken of the girls. And a lot of times of her brothers. She was a cute little go get them in school and out on the farm. A good wife and mother. Her and Onion had a long good life together. So sad to hear she is gone but now she is back teasing her brothers and with her folks Dan and Mary. Hugs to the family
