“ I have so many memories of Don Moore, and the laughter he and his family shared with mine. Don and Char were two of my parents' best friends. Don loved golf, and time following his kids and grandkids in their sporting events. He always had a smile on his face, and helped my mom when she was on her own. Thanks for being such a happy, kind, and loving friend, Don. Watch out for those guard rails with Dad, Mom, and Roc up in Heaven! Love to Char and the girls!

“ Candy, Ron and family, Gail and I want to send you our deepest sympathies with the passing of your father. Your family was always an endorsement for affection and affinity. The scene that is so very clear to me gained as a young high school kid is seeing your Dad on the sidelines at the football games smiling and chatting with all the other men of the community. May God bless you all and show you His love in these dark, but transitioning days.
