

Donna Mae Face

November 26, 1929 - December 1, 2024

Donna Mae Face, 95, of Charlotte, a kind-hearted and loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great-grandmother, died peacefully on Sunday, December 1, 2024 in Marshall. Donna was born November 26, 1929 in Charlotte, the daughter of Bruce Thomas and Ester (Howard) Barrett. Many will remember Donna's Family Restaurant in Olivet, which she owned and operated until her retirement in the 1980s. Donna and her husband, Olivet Police Chief Oscar Face, enjoyed many years of dressing up as Mr. and Mrs. Claus and making several appearances throughout the area, including the Country Mill. Above all, Donna loved her family.

Friends are encouraged to support Donna's family by sharing memories on
