“ I agree with both my brother Gary and my Brother-in-Law Bruce. Aunt Doris had so many friends and great neighbors. Yes, Bruce, there are so many memories that keep flooding back about Doris and Frank and our visits to Charlotte. I wonder what would have really happened if I agreed to WRESTLE with Frank.

The Klines did not have children of their own.....or maybe they did, in the form of Marcia, Gordo, Gary and I...We WERE their kids...!! I am so glad that we are part of the Mason-Kline Family...!!!

“ To any of Doris's friends and neighbors. Doris loved you very much! All of you were so very kind and loving to her. We can't say enough about how helpful you were and how appreciative she was. God calls us to see to the needs of widows, all of you truly answered that call. Her family thanks you from the bottom of our hearts?
