

Dylan Harley Joseph Tokar

August 11, 1988 - January 30, 2021

Dylan Harley Joseph Tokar, 32, of Elsie, MI, a "one of a kind" original, died unexpectedly on Saturday, January 30, 2021 in Eaton Rapids. Dylan was born August 11, 1988 in Lansing, the son of Ted and Cindy (Raines) Tokar. He graduated from Grand Ledge High School before going to work in various capacities. Throughout the years, he worked in construction and maintenance. Dylan was most at peace outdoors hunting, or behind the wheel of a fast car. He loved motorcycles, mud bogging, NASCAR, and beautiful women. Many will remember Dylan for his outspoken nature and constant readiness to help others.

Dylan is survived by his parents, Ted Tokar and Cindy Raines; brothers, Mike (Mary Jo) Tokar and Jason (Nicole) Tokar; several nieces and nephews, uncles and aunts and cousins. He was predeceased by his grandparents, Harley and Bernadine Raines and Stephen and Dorothy Tokar; aunt, Sally Raines; and cousin, Kelsey Tokar.

Friends and Family are invited to support Dylan's family. Visitation will take place from 4:00 - 7:00 p.m. on Friday, February 5, 2021 at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte. A memorial gathering will take place in the future, when restrictions are lifted and the weather improves. If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to any Charity of Choice. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Dylan on his Tribute Page at www.PrayFuner al.com. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

“ This one hurts a lot, as I am late in finding out. Dylan and I dated for a while when he was 19 and I was 30. For obvious reasons we parted ways, but we kept in touch throughout the years because I still cared how he was. I was sick last year and I hadn't heard from him so today I went to check up on him and found all of this.

Dylan wasn't just a guy I dated for a year- he was a friend to me and many others. He never put me on hold when I needed someone to talk to and always had something silly to say fo make me smile. Today I needed that smile and went to hit him up and found this. It hurts

My condolences to the entire family. I have a feeling Dyl is giving them a run for their money in Heaven ❤️

“ Ted and Cindy,

I so wish I could have been there tonight to share my condolences in person. I am sorry for the loss of your son. Though I hadn't spoken to Dylan in quite some time I don't think there has been a day that goes by when I don't think of him. For the better part of 5 years, he was one of my best friends. Dylan could always make me laugh even when I hated him. He had an amazing ability to strike up a conversation and make friends with just about anyone which I always envied. I could tell him anything and know that I wouldn't be judged. I have missed him everyday since the last time I saw him and will continue to miss him. I can only pray his soul is at peace now and that he knew what he meant to me in this life. I just wish I would have had the chance to tell him in this one.

I'm glad I could help if only in a small way. Whenever I remember he's gone for a second I hope that it's a nightmare but I always remember it's not. I keep meaning to call and I keep putting it off because I don't want to face it honestly. My heart aches 💔 I can only imagine your pain, I'm praying for you and your family daily, I'll be in touch soon. 🙏

“ I'm positive Cindy that you don't remember me, but I remember Dylan and you fondly. I was a daycare staff member at Ingham Medical back in the day. I loved your kindness. I adored Dylan. He was a cutie big boy that was always on the go. He was always so silly. He was a gentle giant that didn't realize his own strength. I am deeply sorry for your loss. I just wanted you to know how much I loved your sweet boy. I will keep you in my prayers. He will always watch over you.

“ Just found out u passed away Dyl Tok I am still in disbelief bout it. I just heard from u 3 day ago u called me beautiful, I would come see u here & there to sell u my asthma inhalers to help u breathe better. You were always so kind to me I feel so bad for not replying back to you right away 😭💔 plus we haven't talked to eachother since mid Oct. Life is truly short we need to really appreciate/ cherish eachother. I will truly miss u my friend sorry for not saying something back to u a few days ago have fun up in Heaven & thank u for calling me beautiful before passing away I appreciate that a lot & I won't forget u 💋 may u finally RIP Dylan. 🙏 PSA #suicidalawareness I can relate to suicide so much b/ c my own mother also took her life. It isn't a joke it's a real thing that happens everyday around the world it's not an easy thing to deal w/ either. We have to spread more love not hate !!! 💔

“ Dylan came over a couple years ago and Kylee, Randy, Dylan, and I all went fishing out in onondaga. We had so much fun laughing and catching nasty yellow bellies. I remember Kylee had to pee so bad and we were parked on a hill so I held her up while the boys laughed and said not to fall. We talked and fished forever it seemed. It's one of my favorite memories with him.

“ Bubba, I don't even know where to begin....we have so many memories together and some i probably shouldn't share lol but a couple of my favorites are when you sang the national anthem at the eagle mud bog and mom yelling "that's my boy" or you and Dustin started jamming to "man i feel like a women" on the way up to mamaw and papaws. All the time we spent together swimming at the quarry, all the fires and cake fights we had. Two tracking and you making your own trails Or you holding me tight telling me that everything would be ok sissy, I got you. You was a one of a kind guy, that no one will replace. You cared about your friends and family more than life itself. All I would have to say is bubba and you would be on your way. God sure did gain a wonderful man to be up there with him. Can't wait til i see you again bubs.

Love always and forever your sissy ❤️❤️
