

Edith Verna Swartz

June 24, 1910 - February 18, 2007

Edith Verna Swartz, 96, of Vermontville died Sunday, February 18, 2007. Mrs. Swartz was born June 24, 1910 in Detroit; the daughter of Maude (Abshire) Pier. She was a district advisor for the Girl Scouts of America from 1962-1972. Mrs. Swartz enjoyed camping, hiking, traveling, reading and classical music. She was preceded in death by her husband, Raymond Swartz and her sister, Rosamonde Hook. Mrs. Swartz is survived by her son, Terrill (Julia) Swartz of Vermontville; her daughter, Judith (Bryce) Forester of Mason; four grandchildren: Dylan Forester of Potterville, Amy (Kris) Krycinski of Grand Ledge, Jennifer Swartz of Charlottesville, Virginia and Andrew (Corrie) Swartz of Chelsea; as well as her great-granddaughter, Sonia Krycinski of Lansing. Visitation was held from 7:00pm-9:00pm on Tuesday, February 20, 2007 at Pray Funeral Home. A memorial service was held at 11:00a.m. on Thursday, February 22, 2007 at the First Congregational Church of Vermontville, with Pastor Israel Young officiating. Contributions may be made to the Flower House, the Vermontville Congregational Church or the Maple Valley Scholarship Fund.