“ Karen and I will never forget “Earthquake Edna.” A bunch of us stayed at Pokagon for a few days, as we normally do each year. We were playing Charades and Edna had a card for an earthquake. She did a wide-eyed, outstretched hands, quivering demonstration. From that point on, she was known to those friends as Earthquake Edna.

We always enjoyed worshipping and talking with Edna. She had a lot of care for her family.

“ I remember Edna made fried green tomatoes for a lot of us kids in the neighborhood. They were so good and it always seemed we would eat so many that we would all have stomach aches. It wasn't her fault that we kept eating more and more. That was one memory I will never forget. Lots of great times in the neighborhood. So sorry for your loss. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I remember when I was boy running around the farm (probably getting into trouble) I would run in through the back porch & sneak in the fridge to swig a drink of kook-aid out of the container. Grandma said Barry we have cups for that and of course I didn't pay any attention. well the following day grandma taught me a lesson, she made a fresh batch of koolaid but instead of sugar in the koolaid she put in vinegar...long story short it was a very hot day I come running in as usual go to take a quick swig Grandma was making breakfast I take a huge gulp and grandma looks me says how's the koolaid....I was learned that day.

1 The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. 2 Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death. Isiah 57:1-2
