“ I worked for C. H. Robinson Company when they were at the Detroit Produce Terminal. I would see Ed in the hallway sometimes and we would talk, joking with each other and many times we would skip down the hall arm in arm on the way back to our offices. I will always remember that. What fun. Not too many men would do that. He was a great person, always a smile!! He was a Gentleman and also a gentle man, I'm sure he will be greatly missed. Please accept my deepest sympathy
