“ Betty's open door policy included heart. I am so grateful fate put her in my life. She was one of my role models, one of my anchors. I will miss her immensely and cherish her memories often.

“ The great pleasure that I, and many friends had, long ago, of meeting and getting to know Betty and Dave during so many Hot Rodding exploits in the late 1950s and 60s, will always be a very fond set of memories.

And of always being welcomed to their home while doing so, and sharing in their memories from those times.

Please accept my condolences for the loss of such a warm, caring person. She will never be forgotten.
