“ I will miss my Aunt Liz, the visits we had, the funny and lively conversations, her letters, and her great cooking. My sincere sympathies to the family in this time of sorrow.

“ I enjoyed my e-mail chats with Aunt Liz, at least I did until she got mad at her service provider (they had it coming) and she stopped using e-mail. She also worked hard on a family tree that's a treasure to have.

We will miss Aunt Liz, each for our own reasons, and all because we loved her.

“ I was so sad to hear that Aunt Liz passed away. We kept in touch through email, letters, phone calls, and occasional visits when I could get to Michigan. She had a great sense of humor and was always ready to pass along a funny story. We shared a love for crafts and animals, especially dogs. We often chatted about the projects we were working on and the dogs we had loved in the past. I know she is now with Uncle Dick and is not in any pain any more. Sending my love and prayers to the family. Paulette Domingo

“ My condolences to all the family. I have known Liz for just over 30 years, half my life, we met though our love of cross stitch as pen pals all those years ago. Have kept in touch by snail mail, email, and by phone over time. I will miss my pretty much weekly chats with Liz all the way from Australia. My thoughts are with all the family at this sad time, now Liz and Dick are back together. Thank you Jill for keeping me updated on how Liz and Dick were, it is very much appreciated. All my love, Judi. Perth, Western Australia
