“ Dearest Elora, We never saw your smile or the color of your eyes. We never heard your laughter and we never heard your cries. You never felt our kisses on your cheek and nose. Or tickles underneath your chin and on your little toes. You didn't hear "I love you" and you didn't see me weep. For your spirit left your body and you were born asleep. But there will come a time in death when our eyes close too. And we know that when we awaken, we'll awaken there with you. You will be in our hearts forever. Love Always, grandma and grandpa Hainstock

“ There is no greater heartache than the loss of a beloved child. I am so sorry. I didn't get to meet Elora but I will carry her memory with me forever. Her name will be spoken and she will be remembered with love.
