“ I met Elsie at Dimondale where she and my mother were residents. I would ask Elsie if she wanted her picture on Willard's Smucker jar when she turn 100 and she would just laugh. She is in the sweetest place now, God has another angel in heaven. Jana Kittilson

“ About 6 years ago I found out aunt Elsie was living almost next door to me. My daughter Jacque and I went to see her. She had a big pot of beans and ham on the stove. We spent about 2 hours there just talking. She told me about how she and uncle Frank met and about her days as a "biker chick", showed me pictures of the motorcycles she, uncle Frank, Aunt Betty and uncle Bud had back in the day. She had so much to tell about growing up and what they did for fun. I am so glad that my daughter got to meet her. She will be missed alot
