

Emagene Pitcher

April 28, 1929 - May 13, 2026

Emagene "Jean" Pitcher, age 97, of Charlotte, a woman whose love for her family ran deep, died peacefully on May 13, 2026. Jean was born in Charlotte on April 28, 1929, the daughter of Charles A. and Bernice B. (Frank) Magoon.

Jean found her greatest joy in spending time with her family and attending the many activities and events that filled their lives. Whether cheering on her grandchildren at sporting events or faithfully rooting for the Detroit Tigers, she treasured every moment shared with those she loved. Jean enjoyed meeting friends at local restaurants, tending to her beautiful flowers, and watching the many birds that gathered around her feeders. She delighted in identifying the different varieties that visited each day. In quieter moments, Jean could often be found working on jigsaw puzzles or completing word searches, hobbies she enjoyed for many years.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to the caring staff at Island City Assisted Living for the compassion, kindness, and wonderful care they provided to Jean and her family.

Jean is survived by her children, Sandy (Eugene) Fraley, Rick (Judy) Williams, Gary Williams and Vicki Carter, Trudy (Jeffery) Kill, Wendy (Brian) Selden, and Lonny Pitcher; 15 grandchildren; 29 great-grandchildren; 27 great-great-grandchildren; and special friends, Chuck Jenson and Kay Willets. She was predeceased by her parents; all five of her siblings; and great-granddaughter, Shayna Cole.
