

Fred W. Sussex

October 10, 1927 - June 15, 2006

Fred W. Sussex 78 of Charlotte, Michigan passed away, June 15, 2006 at his home. Mr. Sussex was born in Lansing, October 11, 1927. He leaves behind his beloved wife Barbara of 58 years, daughters; Sharon Grescowle of Holt, Susan (Gene) Milligan of Dimondale, Sandra (Don) Miles of Des Moines Iowa; son, Edward Sussex of Charlotte, 6 grandchildren; Amy (Tony) Lask, Lisa (Bill) Hambly, Heather and David Milligan, and John and Robin Miles, and 3 great grandchildren; Alexandra, Andrea and Anthony and a huge extended family including step-mother, brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews. Fred was a manager and teacher who taught the welding trade and was involved in the Welding Supply business in Lansing, Kalamazoo and Sturgis. He was employed at Welders Supplies and Gases and AGA Gases. Fred loved life, was a good man and true and was never happier that when he was surrounded by his family. He loved airplanes, sailboats, music, reading, playing cards and a good joke. Fred freely shared his knowledge, sense of humor and his celebration of life. Family and friends considered their lives enriched and blessed by knowing him and the example he set. He was preceded in death by his sisters, Jean Hudson and Donna McGinley. Memorial services will be 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, June 20, 2006 at Charlotte Free Methodist Church, 748 Bonnie St. Charlotte, with Pastor Darold Hill officiating. Interment will be in Deepdale Memorial Gardens at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, in Lansing. If desired, memorial contributions may be made to the Charlotte Public Library or the Hayes Green Beach Memorial Hospital. Email
