

Gary Richard Farmer

December 5, 1953 - October 25, 2024

Gary Richard Farmer, a happy man, but a man that also could be as stubborn as a mule, died on October 25, 2025. Gary, 70, of Lansing, was born on December 5, 1953. Upon graduating from high school Gary was drafted into the Air Force. He served during Vietnam and Desert Storm, until his retirement from the Air Force. Once he returned home Gary worked in a management position with Intercept Security. Gary was a man who was proud of his military background and loved sharing stories. Hobbies that he enjoyed included collecting and shooting guns, watching action movies, and running. Above all, Gary was proud of his grandson, Garth, who he helped shape into the man he is today.

Gary is survived by his daughter, Jessica Sidman Peck; step-children, Mary Cooper, Richard Cooper, and Amber Cooper; grandson, Garth (Stephanie) Cooper, and 13 other grandchildren; great-grandchild, Cassian, and several other great-grands; siblings, Bob Farmer and Rhonda Taylor; and step-mother, Joyce Farmer. He was predeceased by his wife, Brenda (Mallard) Farmer; and his parents.

Friends are encouraged to support Gary's family by sharing memories on his Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com. Gary will be laid to rest next to his wife, with full military honors at the Texas State Veterans Cemetery in Abilene, TX. If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to Veterans helping
