“ Jerry was a part of my life for many years. He was one of my big brother, John's, best friends. They are both gone now, but not before leaving us with many years of memories. Jerry, I know both your daughters were there to welcome you home. Rest easy old friend

“ Hands down the best grandpa a girl could ask for. He's a real stand up man. Always valued his family. I'm going to miss the western movies (I've seen every John Wayne movie made). I don't think I would have made it through any History class without him. He knew it all. I'm going to miss him yelling to the TV as if the people on it could hear him, from the prices is right to soaps with grandma. He worked 3rd shift all my life for corrections. Hed come home and love us out the door to school, or come ho ho hoing through the door Christmas morning bright and early. It was one of his most favorite mornings over the years. To watch us kids grow gave him a glow of completeness. He will forever be loved and missed greatly. Always and forever. My rock. Love you. ❤️
