

Gladys Marie Curtis

March 18, 1920 - May 30, 2001

Gladys Marie (Kelley) Curtis, 81 of Charlotte, died May 30, 2001. Mrs. Curtis was born March 18, 1920, in Clare, Michigan; the daughter of George and Dora (Miller) Highlen. She was a member of the Congregational Church of Charlotte, an avid square dancer and enjoyed gardening and traveling. Mrs. Curtis was preceded in death by her son, Fred Kelley; her brother, George Highlen and her sister, Flossie DeBarr. She is survived by five daughters: Charlotte (Kelley) Custer of Edwardsburg, Michigan; Betty Feintuch of Okemos; Janet (Ron) Baker of Eaton Rapids; Linda (Dick) Feldpausch of Holt and Tammy (David) Sercombe of Hanover; one son, Leonard Kelley of Arizona; her daughter-in-law, Gwen Kelley of Arizona; twenty-three grandchildren, twenty-six great grandchildren and one great-great granddaughter. Mrs. Curtis is also survived by her sister, Fern Jenkins of Lansing and her special friend, Ray Burley of Charlotte. Visitation was from 5:00p.m. to 8:00p.m. on Friday, June 1, 2001. A funeral was held at 10:30a.m. on Saturday, June 2, 2001, with Reverend Donald O. Phillips officiating. Interment was in Needmore Cemetery, Charlotte, Michigan.