

Guinevere Irene Martin

August 17, 1923 - June 23, 2017

Guinevere Irene Martin, 93, of Olivet MI, died peacefully on Friday, June 23, 2017 at Christian Elder Care. She was born August 17, 1923, in Midland MI, the daughter of Judge Guy and Maude Smith.

Guinevere met her husband, William Martin, while attending Colorado College. While William served in the Army Air Corps during WWII, they moved frequently around the country including Arizona, Alabama and New Mexico. After the war, they moved to Mendham, NJ. Guinevere worked at The Daily Record newspaper in Morristown and Silver Burdett Publishing Bernards Township.

She attended Fairleigh Dickenson University in Madison where she earned a Masters Degree in English. She served on the faculty of St Vincent Martyr School in Madison and Morris County College for many years. She enjoyed reading biographies, gardening, her pets and the study of gem elixirs.

Guinevere is survived by her sons, Christopher Martin and William (Jean) Martin; grandchildren, William (Anna) Martin, Craig (Elyse) Martin; and great-grand children, Adelaide, Alister, Sophia and Lillian. She was predeceased by her husband William in 1978.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Guinevere on her Tribute page at www.PrayFuneral.com. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.
