

Harold J Diamond

July 2, 1934 - June 5, 2023

Harold Jay Diamond of Charlotte, a family man that loved everything about being outdoors, died June 5, 2023 at the age of 88. Born in Charlotte, Michigan on July 2, 1934 to Harley and Goldie (King) Diamond, Harold lived his entire life in the area. In 1959 he married Gloria Hoag, and together they raised their six children with lots of outdoor activities including camping, fishing, hunting, riding motorcycle, and other activities that everyone enjoyed. He worked for the John Henry Printing Company, retiring in 1996. After retirement, he enjoyed time spent being a grandpa and fishing every chance he got. Harold and Gloria also enjoyed time together with lots of trips to Florida and around the country. A stern father, Harold might come across as a little gruff but his family knew he had a soft side and loved them immensely.

Harold is survived by his children, Cindy Steward, Lorrie (Bill) Householder, Jeff Diamond, Naomi (Jim Lilly) Wood; grandchildren, Aaron (Bekah) Householder, Maegan (Jen) Householder, Asthon (Chelsey) Wood, Brennon (Paige) Wood, Alexis (Joe) Anzaldua, Brooke Wood, Nicole Butler, Lisa Butler, Sabrina Whitt, Angel Diamond, and Mariah Diamond; many great-grandchildren; sister, Marilyn Mather; and special niece Majil Naomi Newth. He was predeceased by his wife, Gloria; sons, David Diamond, and Jim Diamond; grandson, Skylar Wood; and brothers, Fred Diamond and Harley Diamond.

Friends are encouraged to support Harold's family by attending services or sharing memories on his Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com. Visitation is Friday, June 16, 2023 10 AM - 12 noon at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte, with graveside services following at 12:30 PM at Millerburg Cemetery for Harold and Gloria. “ I worked at John Henry Company and knew Harold for many years. Harold was a fixture in the shipping department working with Bob Tompkins and many other long term employees. I enjoyed working with and knowing Harold. He was always there, reliable, wanting to do his job the best he could. I have many good memories of Harold.
